1. The latest news received in Lisbon from Rumania by the RADESCU opposition group is that BRATIANU, the leader of the National Liberal Party is now in hiding, undoubtedly within Rumania, to avoid a fate comparable to MANIU's. At the time when BRATIANU decided on this step, a nephew of his, whom source knows only as "Pichi" BRATIANU managed to escape from Rumania and is believed to be now in Paris. . .

2. Upon reaching Paris, one of his first acts was to seek out the representatives of the RADESCU group and ask to become a member. General RADESCU interprets this action as showing clearly that now all active opposition to the present government is concentrated within his group.
